Note: The formatting and sections below can be tailored according to your credits and/or needs. You can use the categories listed here, or create your own according to your credits.

Roles can be dancer, soloist, ensemble, etc. Try to refrain from including your own choreography and dance credits on the same resume.

If you don't have many performance credits, you can add a training section to include notable instructors with which you've worked. You can be creative by using school or volunteer opportunities, but be honest.

Education section is optional, but could be useful if pursuing a dance degree. It could also be helpful if you don't have many performance credits.
